

A photograph of the National College of Ireland building, a modern structure with a mix of grey panels and large glass windows. In the foreground, a tall, silver, abstract sculpture resembling a stylized plant or bird stands prominently. The sky is a clear, pale blue. A semi-transparent white banner is overlaid across the middle of the image, containing the text 'National College of Ireland' and 'January 2016'. To the right, a vertical banner features a chick and the text 'National College of Ireland' and 'Ge head star'. In the bottom left corner, a small sign reads 'CAUTION WET FLOOR'.
